

Westminster MPs want to legalise abortion in N. Ireland

A group of pro-abortion MPs in Westminster want to change the law and legalise abortion in Northern Ireland. These pro-abortion politicians want to 'decriminalise' abortion here by repealing Sections 58 and 59 of the '1861 Offences Against The Person Act.'

Repealing this Act would remove all safeguards for pregnant women, leaving them and their unborn children with no legal protection throughout the whole nine months of pregnancy.

Abortion is a devolved issue in Northern Ireland and must be dealt with by the Northern Ireland Assembly only! The Northern Ireland Assembly voted against legalising abortion as recently as February 2016. MPs in Westminster must not override our democratic process by attempting to impose abortion on N. Ireland against the wishes of the people here.

Dear Mrs Bradley and Mr Vara,
I want unborn babies and their mothers protected from abortion.

The Westminster Parliament must respect the democratic process in Northern Ireland and acknowledge the clear pro-life message sent out from our Assembly in February 2016.

I call upon you both to ensure that any legislation regarding abortion in Northern Ireland will be dealt with by the Northern Ireland Assembly only.
